CORRESPONDENCE

a. Town of Hillsborough – Monthly expense report..

OLD BUSINESS

a. NRI (Natural Resources Inventory) – Linda White reported that Jeff Littleton had reported that they will be wrapping up the fieldwork this month and are finishing up Draft maps. He will be attending the October 13th meeting. A bill was received for $12,060.00.

James McDonough moved: To approve the payment of $12,060.00 to Moosewood Ecological..

Jim Narloch seconded. Motion passed 7-0.

b. Wetland Ordinance – Richard Head reported the Planning Board had approved the ordinance. It is being reviewed by Town Council.

c. Conservation Easement – Chair Head reported he had spoken to Peter Mellen and is awaiting a quote. He also presented a Draft agreement. After review the HCC by consensus approved it. Chair Head will send it to the property owner.

d. Low Forest Volunteer Agreement – Jim Riddle reported that Inge Seaboyer had referred him to the logger who is currently working at Farrar Marsh and then will be working in Low Forest. Jim Riddle will check to see if they can fill in the House Rock parking area when they work at Low Forest. Consensus of the Commission was to further discuss the agreement in the spring after logging is done.

e. Intern – Jim Riddle reported he had completed documentation to UNH for Jack Blevens. Articles he had written were being provided to the Hillsborough Hub After discussion regarding some of the suggestions Jack had made and signage and flagging at the Shedd Brook trails the Commission decided to have a work session at the Shedd Brook Conservation Area on October 4th at 10:00 am. John Segedy will post this as a meeting.

f. Perambulation – Jim Riddle reported he had received an e-mail and this may be happening this fall.

NEW BUSINESS

a. Easement Monitoring – James McDonough reported he had recently been on the Olivia Smith Easement and there are no problems. The Philbrick Easement will be done over the winter. Terry Yeaton will do the PSNH Easement. Richard Head and Doug Lischke will do the Black Pond Brook Easement on October 10th at 9:00 am.

b. Maps – Terry Yeaton suggested it would be helpful to include adjoining areas from other towns, especially where properties that have conservation interest and cross the town line. Jim Riddle reported that the Henniker PO is no longer carrying the CC maps.

ADJOURNMENT

Jim Riddle moved: To Adjourn.

Doug Lischke seconded. Motion passed 7-0 at 7:37 pm.
